Pale Morning Dun

Our Pale ale is named after a classic western dry fly, one of our favorites. It is also brewed with some of our favorite hops: Mosaic, Amarillo, and Idaho 7. These fruit forward hops pack flavors of mango, blueberry, and pineapple. The late hop additions add a delightful aroma and flavor with very little bitterness. The malt base is simple to let the flavor of the hops shine through.

Hoppy Henry Session IPA

This east coast IPA is bursting with tropical flavors: ripe mango, grapefruit, and lemon shine through in this double dry hopped session IPA. Brewed with oats and wheat to give it a nice hazy appearance with a soft mouth feel. Pounds of late addition mosaic, citra and Idaho 7 hops give it a ton of flavor with very little bitterness.
